

Your Feedback

Your feedback helps us to improve, so that you will feel safer, happier and get more out of our services.

We will often ask you for feedback. You can also comment or complain at any time. You can use this brochure, or phone us, or ask our staff to help. They will make sure the right people get your message. Your complaint will be kept private.

When you tell us what you like or don't like, we will listen. And we will try to change things if we can.

You will always receive a reply as quickly as possible.

This information is part of the Feedback and complaints Management Policy.

If you wish to read the entire policy, we are happy to provide a copy.

Compliments and complaints

To give you better and better services,
we need your feedback.

Feedback can be compliments,
comments, or complaints.

We love to hear compliments.

That means we are getting it right. If you are happy, we are happy!

If you are not happy, tell us. It's OK to complain.

We won't be angry. So don't be shy. We need to know how you feel. Help us to do better!

We will always listen and reply to complaints, as quickly as possible.

You can complain anonymously. If you don't leave your name, we can't reply to your complaint. But we will still try to make things better.

Advocates

An advocate is trained to speak for you.

If you are not sure how to find an advocate, we can help.

Advocates are a free service.

NDIS Commission

You don't have to talk with us.

If you have a serious complaint, you can tell the NDIS Commission.
